

Starting on Tuesday, Nov. 17, the Artillery Park Aquatic Centre, 382 Bagot St., will reopen for recreational use under the province's re-opening framework and through guidance from KFL&A Public Health in two stages:

- Fitness Centre and gymnasium – will be available for drop-in use starting Tuesday Nov. 17.
- Pools – will be available for drop-in use starting Monday, Nov. 23.

We ask those coming to use the facility to arrive dressed ready for your activity, wear a mask, and be prepared to follow a number of other COVID-19 measures in place.

Starting on Tuesday, Nov. 17, the facility will be open:

- Monday to Friday – 6 a.m. to 8 p.m.
- Saturday and Sunday - 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Memberships will be re-instated at Artillery Park upon re-opening, and fitness centre, fitness classes and various drop-in gymnasium programs will also resume under reduced capacity, and with new pre-registered drop-in options. Details about recreation programming, registration for drop-in activities and facility schedules are being updated as they become available at www.cityofkingston.ca/PLAY.

Find updates on City services and programs on the City's COVID-19 webpage.