Bargaining Committee Message

In March 2023, a courageous group of Residence Dons at Queen's University voted in favour of unionization and in April 2023 they certified with the United Steelworkers. Since then, Residence Dons have worked tirelessly to begin the task of building your union.

USW Local 2010-02 has now joined the family of Steelworkers on campus and are part of a vital and dynamic Social Justice and Advocacy Team.

After months of consultation with Residence Dons through surveys, sectorial research, proposal development, negotiations with the Employer, and a final bargaining meeting lasting ~17 hours concluding at 3:00am on Saturday, March 9th, your Bargaining Committee is pleased to present a Tentative Agreement for a first Collective Agreement (contract) between USW Local 2010-01 Residence Dons and Queen's University.

Your Residence Dons Bargaining Committee unanimously recommends ratification of the Tentative Agreement for a first Collective Agreement (CA).

This first Collective Agreement makes significant gains in areas pertaining to health and safety, harassment and discrimination, grievance and arbitration processes, recruitment and job postings, hours of work, and monetary gains as it relates to training.

This Collective Agreement also protects and safeguards many of the working terms and conditions that are currently enjoyed by Residence Dons, and therefore requires careful consideration by all when considering the contract as a whole.

We, your Bargaining Committee, trust that each of you will take the time to determine whether it is a reasonable and fair offer from the Employer.

In solidarity, your Bargaining Committee:

- Isa (Daniel) Fichtinger
- Jun Wei (Allen) Wu
- Jeffrey You
- Jessica Sun
- Ahmer Shahzad (Advisory Member)
- Ryan Cheng (Advisory Member)
- Kelly J. Orser, Co-Chief Spokesperson, President, and Bargaining Committee Chair
- Briana Broderick, Co-Chief Spokesperson, and USW Staff Representative
- Samantha Samson, Member Services Coordinator, and Bargaining Committee Assistant
- Syed Akhtar, USW Staff Representative

Contract Highlights

Details regarding your first Collective Agreement are outlined in this document for your consideration.

Who's in the bargaining unit

All Residence Dons employed by Queen's University, including Living Learning Community Dons (LLCs) and Residence Life Assistants (RLAs), will be in the bargaining unit each year.

If retroactive compensation for Members is included in the newly ratified Collective Agreement, union dues apply, however, USW Local 2010 has waived the union dues and joining fees for this historic first Collective Agreement. Effective August 1, 2024, all new and returning Dons will begin paying union dues and joining fees under this Collective Agreement.

The Employer will inform all Members of their affiliation in the USW Local 2010-02 Union, where to find a copy of the Collective Agreement, and when the Union Orientation will be held. - Room preferences do not trigger these obligations.
- For Code based accommodations that are denied, the Employer will respond in writing to the member outlining the rationale for the decision and will include the option of submitting additional information to support the request.
- Written notification must be provided to the Member no later than the time room assignments are distributed to all Dons.
- Members have the right to Union Representation when dealing with accommodations.

Mandatory Training (Pre-Academic Year Employee Training)

During negotiation for the first Collective Agreement the Union indicated that compensation for Pre-Academic Year Employee Training was identified as a priority for the Bargaining Unit. The Parties acknowledge that there may be an opportunity to condense the length of the training while acknowledging that in-person training is mandatory and critical for Employee success in their role. There was also an acknowledgement that training itself is a management right pursuant to Article 5 of the Collective Agreement. As a result, the Parties agreed that by no later than April 30, 2025, they will:

- Form a working group with the stated intention of examining the potential to condense the length of the training and/or method of delivery.
- The working group will include representatives from the Local Union, representatives from Residence Life Management, up to three (3) Employees, and other University partners that can assist the Parties to meet their mutual goal.
- In the event that these discussions result in the reduction of the length of Pre-Academic Year Employee Training, the stipend as at Article 30.02 may no longer be required, subject to agreement of the Parties. If the length of training remains the same as in 2024, the stipend will be paid to Employees in 2025.

The Parties agreed that given the unique nature of the Bargaining Unit and the complexity associated with the Union's concerns that they would continue discussions throughout the term of the operative Collective Agreement, with the intention of negotiating mutually agreeable Collective Agreement language which will be housekept in the next Collective Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that there may be an opportunity to condense the length of the training while acknowledging that in-person training is mandatory and critical for Employee success in their role. There was also an acknowledgement that training itself is a management right pursuant to Article 5 of the Collective Agreement. As a result, the Parties agreed that by no later than April 30, 2025, they will:

- Form a working group with the stated intention of examining the potential to condense the length of the training and/or method of delivery.
- The working group will include representatives from the Local Union, representatives from Residence Life Management, up to three (3) Employees, and other University partners that can assist the Parties to meet their mutual goal.
- In the event that these discussions result in the reduction of the length of Pre-Academic Year Employee Training, the stipend as at Article 30.02 may no longer be required, subject to agreement of the Parties. If the length of training remains the same as in 2024, the stipend will be paid to Employees in 2025.
